FELLOWSHIP FOR ECONOMIC JUSTICE

CAMPAIGN UPDATE

NCLEJ DINNER ON MAY 26 HONORED PAUL AND TWO OTHERS

Paul Dodyk was honored, along with Elpidio (PD) Villarreal, GlaxoSmithKline Senior Vice President for Global Litigation, and Bob Herbert, award-winning columnist, at NCLEJ's annual Awards Dinner on May 26 at Chelsea Piers in New York City. Paul was introduced by NCLEJ

Board Chair (and a protégé of his at Cravath) Jennifer Selendy.

The Dinner served as the official launch of the campaign for the Paul M. Dodyk Fellowship for Economic Justice.

FELLOWSHIP CAMPAIGN STARTS OFF STRONGLY!

As of June 23, the Dodyk Fellowship Campaign has raised nearly $330,000! We're excited to get off to such a strong start, but need to keep the momentum going! If you haven't pledged yet, there's still plenty of time.

Donors who give $1,000 or more will have the opportunity to meet with current and past Dodyk Fellows and NCLEJ staff to learn about their work and will be listed in all publications regarding the Fellowship. For more information, contact Vicki Henderson, NCLEJ's Director of Development.

WHAT IS THE DODYK FELLOWSHIP?

The newly created Paul M. Dodyk Fellowship for Economic Justice at NCLEJ honors former NCLEJ Board Chair (and current Board member) Paul Dodyk for his lifetime commitment to using the law to promote fair and dignified treatment for everyone in our society, regardless of their means.

The Dodyk Fellowship will support the legal efforts of recent law school graduates and will greatly enhance NCLEJ's capacity to serve those in need for years to come.
